

The Coconino Sun

VOL. XVIII.

FLAGSTAFF, JUNE 22, 1901.

No. 25

LOCAL BREVITIES.

What's the matter with the old sprinkler—lost?

Take your girl to Timerhoff's for an ice cream soda.

Eastman's kodaks and photo supplies at Eastern prices at Babbitt's.

Mrs. W. H. Carroll is in Chicago undergoing medical treatment.

The best pure sap maple syrup to be found at P. R. Weatherford & Co.'s.

Born—In Flagstaff, June 16, 1901, to the wife of J. P. Arnolds, a daughter.

P. R. Weatherford & Co., have just received a car of the celebrated Club House Flour.

C. E. Van Nest has sold his residence here and expects to leave for California about the middle of July.

A. F. Banta has resigned his position as guard at the prison and left for Phoenix on Monday night's train.—Yuma Sentinel.

Village school shoes for boys and girls. The best school shoe ever brought to Flagstaff are sold by the New York Store.

John Hance, the Grand Canyon guide, spent a couple of days here this week. He is busy these days showing tourists the depths of the canyon.

Mrs. J. T. Jacobsen, Miss M. Jacobsen, and Mr. and Mrs. Francis of the Harvey House, Winslow, were guests of the Weatherford on Thursday.

In the Fourth of July racing program, printed in another column, the novelty race purses should read: First, $20; half, $20; three-quarters, $30; fourth, $30.

Chas. H. Akers, secretary of Arizona, has returned home from Washington, passing through here Sunday last. Mr. Akers is getting his office ready to turn over to his successor and the transfer will be made July 1.

Our baseball team is billed to play at Williams on the 30th and at Flagstaff on the Fourth of July. If either one of those nines can beat our boys they will have to play ball from the time they first go to bat until the last inning is finished.—Winslow Mail.

W. G. McDonald and wife of Rhoades, Arizona, were guests of the Weatherford, Wednesday. Mr. McDonald has disposed of his stock in The J. M. Dennis Lumber Company and expects to engage in the lumber business at some point in the territory, probably Wick-enburg.

Thomas Carroll came in from the southern part of the county Thursday. He says the search for John McCarty, who was lost in that section on June 7th, still continues. The only hope now is to find the body of the missing man, as all hope of his being alive has been given up by his friends.

John B. Leiberg of the United States geological survey, Washington, D. C., is here for the purpose of making an examination of the lands in the San Francisco Mountains reserve to determine what portion of the reserve is more valuable for agricultural purposes than for timber reserve. It will take Mr. Leiberg several months to complete the work laid out for him in this reserve.

Mrs. J. C. Blake is visiting relatives in Oklahoma.

Nicely furnished rooms for rooms for rent. Apply at this office.

When you want the best goods for the least money buy of P. R. Weatherford & Co.

The finest of flavors and the best cream is used in our ice cream sodas. W. H. Timerhoff.

J. L. Davis, superintendent of the Val Verde Copper Copper Company, was in town Monday.

Fire Insurance—The Arizona Central Bank represents a number of the largest American and English companies.

Any one wishing a man's bicycle cheap will do well to consult A. B. Hermann of Flagstaff. A wheel when new worth $45.

N. N. Nay of Chicago, Ill., who has been here several weeks seeking health, left for Los Angeles Friday, it being necessary for him to go to a lower altitude.

Stanley Sykes has resigned his position as engineer at the J. M. Dennis Lumber Company at Rhoades, and with his family has gone to Los Angeles on a short vacation.

The New Bank hotel has been refurnished and is now open to the public. Mrs. F. T. McMillan is the new manager, and will for the present run the hotel on the European plan.

An ice cream social will be given at the Bank Hotel on Thursday night, June 27, under the auspices of the Epworth League. An excellent program will be rendered. Look out for "Rebecca at the Well."

Ladies—Mrs. Stein will be at Commercial Hotel in a few days with an elegant line of garments, consisting of tailor-made suits, shirt waists, gowns, underwear. Will be pleased to have all the ladies in Flagstaff to call, whether they wish to purchase or not.

The census of children of school age is complete and shows: Flagstaff District, No. 1, 329; Williams, District No. 2, 198; Frisco, No. 4, 13; Tuba, No. 5, 46; Fredonia, No. 6, 119; Moenava, No. 7, 12; Summit, No. 8, 13; Greenlaw, No. 9, 22; Rhoades, No. 10, 18. Total 768.

J. W. Thurber spent Tuesday here. He has sold his interest in the Grand Canyon stage line and hotel at Bright Angel to Martin Buggeln. Mr. Thurber now has his headquarters at Ash Fork, and is well along with the contract of grading the cut-off on the Santa Fe, Prescott & Phoenix Railroad. Mrs. Thurber and children, who are living at Long Beach, California, will spend the next two months camping out at various points on the rim of the Grand Canyon.

The Flagstaff Junior baseball club is now in working order and the club extends a challenge to any club whose members are under fifteen years of age to a game to be played here on July 4. The members of the club are as follows: Charles Priest, catcher; George Rickel, pitcher; J. E. Priest, Jr., first base; E. Greenlaw, second base; Tim Cornish, short stop; Will Dutton, third base; John Criez, right field; Ray Babbitt, center field; Bertrand Babbitt, left field. J. E. Priest, Jr. is the captain of the club and all communications should be addressed to him.

E. E. Ellinwood is in Prescott this week attending district court.

See prices on shoes at Weatherford & Co., before buying elsewhere.

H. Park and wife of Winslow registered at the Hotel Weatherford yesterday.

If you want a good trunk for a small amount of money call on P. R. Weatherford & Co.

L. D. Yeager, delivered 1400 lambs to Swift & Company's agent here Monday. The shipment was made to Kansas City.

Agents wanted, ladies or men, to sell gilt-edge oil stocks. Queen Oil Co., 916 Market street, San Francisco, California.

Mrs. Rose Yancey, who has been visiting the family of Rev. J. H. Henry, returned to her home in Bakersfield, Cal., Thursday.

Call at the Pioneer Drug Store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.

"It could not be better," is the universal verdict of all who have tried Timerhoff's ice cream sodas. Made of pure cream and flavored with crushed fruits.

Dr. W. S. Robinson left yesterday for Prescott, where he was subpoenaed as an expert medical witness in a case now on trial in the district court of Yavapai county. The doctor expects to return to-morrow.

John Love has sold his collection of pottery and mummies to Dr. S. W. Hart. The collection embraces many valuable pieces of pottery and three well-preserved mummies. The collection was gathered by Mr. Love from old ruins on Beaver Creek.

Prof. L. Gustafson of Lewis Institute, Chicago, and Capt. C. A. Shaw of the same city, arrived from Phoenix Wednesday. They travel by wagon and are health-seekers. They left this morning for the Grand Canyon of Arizona and will be gone several weeks.

Isaac M. Aldridge, who some months ago stole a lot of sheep in Yavapai county and sold them to a Williams butcher, was tried at Prescott this week and the jury returned a verdict of guilty as charged. Aldridge was indicted under the name of Joseph Daniels.

T. E. Pollock purchased the Sander-son block, which was sold on Monday. The two rooms east of the postoffice has been leased by G. H. Coffin, who expects to move his stock into them next week. The second story of the block will probably be finished during the summer.

Twenty placer claims were recorded by Recorder Hibben this week. The locations are in the Cataract region, and are supposed to cover platinum deposits. The locator is J. E. Harper as attorney for J. E. Elliott et al. A. A. Coupland of Williams requested the recording of the location notices.

Mrs. D. Campbell, who went Flagstaff a week ago to attend the closing exercises of the Northern Normal School, returned home yesterday, accompanied by her little daughter, also by her daughter Miss Alice Campbell, who graduated from the school with high honors. The Northern Normal is doing good work.—Journal-Miner.

Buy a Brownie kodak, $1, at Babbitt Bros.

E. M. Doe is in Prescott this week on legal business.

Town Marshal Bayless will enforce the dog tax ordinance after July 1.

Dr. W. S. Robinson has moved his office to rooms over the postoffice.

For Sale—Large hotel range with large pressure boiler and fixtures. Apply at this office.

Village school shoes for boys and girls. The best school shoe ever brought to Flagstaff are sold by the New York Store.

There will be a game of baseball Sunday on the grounds south of town between the Williams and Flagstaff nines. The game will be called at 2 o'clock p. m.

J. H. Perry, the Arizona representative of the National Cash Register, spent Sunday and Monday here. He is a brother of C. R. Perry of the Santa Fe Pacific Railroad.

The merchants seem to be ready and willing to pay the expense of sprinkling the streets in the business portion of town, but the trouble is to find a man willing to do the work.

Mrs. W. C. Bayless, Misses Maude Williams, Tente Chisholm and Creole Black, Messrs. Chester Black, Burt Doyle and Harry Cameron are spending the week camping at Oak creek.

A. N. Taylor, president of the Northern Arizona Normal, addressed the pupils of the public school at Jerome at the closing exercises yesterday. Prof. Taylor expects to return to-morrow.

Dr. William Rudd and daughters, Misses Ida, Virgie and Kitty, left for their home in Springerville, Arizona, on Monday. The Misses Rudd have been attending the Normal for the past two years and will return to complete their course of studies the ensuing term.

D. G. Hunnewell, the violinist, was in Winslow Monday to play for a ball given by the ladies of the Altar Society of the Catholic church of that place. The affair was a success, both socially and financially. The ladies realized something over $100 from their entertainment.

For Rent—On July 1, 1901, brick building on the corner of Railroad avenue and Leroux street. Good frost-proof cellar 25x60 feet, store room 25x60 feet, second story 25x60 feet. Water and sewer connections. Best location in town. For particulars apply to Julius Aubineau, Flagstaff, Arizona.

Wm. B. Ridenour of Hackberry, Mohave county, made his first visit to Flagstaff this week. Mr. Ridenour is an old miner and prospector and was the discoverer of the famous Hackberry silver mines. He owns valuable copper mines close to Pine Springs, near the Grand Canyon, in the western part of this county, which have been producers since their discovery and a good deal of rich ore has been shipped from them. He has recently sold these mines to Addison Boren, a representative of a Pittsburgh, Pa., syndicate, and they will commence work on the properties at once. The price paid was $30,000, and is considered very low by those who are familiar with the property.